<sup>1</sup> General limit of protection

If a deposit is unavailable because the Bank is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Depositor Compensation Scheme, in accordance with the Regulations. This repayment covers a maximum of EUR 100,000. This means that all deposits at the Bank are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with EUR 90,000 and a current account with EUR 20,000, he or she will only be repaid EUR 100,000.

In addition to the protection described above, deposits may be protected in some cases up to a maximum of EUR 500,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such deposits become legally transferable. In order to qualify for such higher protection, a deposit in excess of EUR 100,000 must meet any one of the following additional criteria:

- A. it comprises:
  - a. monies deposited in preparation for the purchase of a private residential property by the depositor; or
  - b. monies which represent the proceeds of sale of a private residential property of the depositor; or
- B. it comprises sums paid to the depositor in respect of:
  - a. a separation, divorce or dissolution of their civil union; or
  - b. benefits payable on retirement; or
  - c. a claim for compensation for unfair dismissal; or
  - d. a claim for compensation for redundancy; or
  - e. benefits payable for death or bodily injury; or
  - f. a claim for compensation for wrongful conviction.
